

Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010:

An Update from the Coordinating Committee on Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse

Indian Nations Conference
December 8-10, 2016, Agua Caliente Reservation, CA

Tribal Law And Order Act (TLOA)

- TLOA signed into law on July 29, 2010
- Reauthorizes and amends the Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act of 1986

TLOA: IASA Provisions

- Emphasize respect for tribal sovereignty
- Support ability of tribes to achieve their goals in prevention, intervention, and treatment of alcohol and substance abuse
- Acknowledge need to align, leverage, and coordinate federal efforts and resources

TLOA: IASA Goals

- Determine scope of AI/AN alcohol and substance abuse (SA) problem
- Identify resources and programs relevant to a coordinated effort
- Coordinate existing agency programs with those established under the Act
- Continued respect for tribal sovereignty embedded in all TLOA activities

TLOA: IASA Federal Partners

Shared roles:

- HHS: Prevent substance abuse and promote behavioral health (SAMHSA); support treatment and rehabilitation (IHS)
- DOI: Provide for education, social services, law enforcement
- DOJ: Justice, public safety and law enforcement

Both Challenge and Opportunity

- The challenge today is to capture the opportunity, via TLOA, to form a more active and committed partnership that demonstrates how Federal Partners and Tribes can strengthen work relations.
- This approach will embrace the value of native culture and practices, while strengthening the need for mutual respect and accountability.

Why do we need to do this?

Developing Purpose-Driven Partnerships for Change

“Embracing the Change Process”

Tribal-Federal Partnerships

Crossing the divide of difference to arrive at a common ground for supporting AI/AN people

Who are the Primary Players?

- Tribal Leadership
- State Leadership
- Regional Leadership and Points of Contact: IHS, SAMHSA, BIA, BIE, DOJ, CMS, ED
- Federal Leadership to align, leverage, and coordinate resources to be accessed by the local Tribal Coordinating Committees.

Examples of Priorities being addressed by Federal Partners

- Improve access to funding—ensure eligibility, streamline the grant application and report process
- Provide improved coordination of training and TA
- Provide Health Reform Outreach
- Assist with Tribal State relations—via established Federal liaisons to guide the consultation process
- Focus on carrying out policy and regulatory reform directives

Department of Justice

- Grants, Training and Technical Assistance:
 - Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
 - Victims of Crime
 - Indian Alcohol and Substance Abuse
 - Tribal Courts
 - Tribal Corrections and Alternatives
 - Tribal Re-Entry grants
 - Indigent Defense
 - Sex Offenders
 - Research & Evaluation, Statistical Analysis and Reporting
 - Crime and Victims statistics
 - Community Oriented Policing
 - Violence Against Women
 - Indigent Defense
- Crime Investigation, Prosecution, Incarceration
- Civil Rights, Indian Child Welfare

Department of Justice FY 2016 Tribal Budget

In the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2016 (Public Law 114-113), Congress

- Did not authorize the 7% flexible tribal justice assistance set aside requested by the Department;
- Provided $30 million for Indian Assistance programs (equal to the FY 2015 enacted funding level);
- Provided $10 million for the Tribal Youth Program (an increase of $5 million over FY 2015 enacted levels);
- Provided no dedicated funding for Vision 21 programs;
- Provided $38.8 million for the Violence Against Women Act Tribal Governments Grants,
- Provided $2.5 million for VAWA Tribal Special DV Jurisdiction,
- Provided $30 million for the Community Oriented Policing Services' Tribal Resources Grant Program ($3 million less than the FY 2015 enacted level).
- The overall tribal programs funding picture in FY 2016 is very similar to FY 2015 (with some minor funding adjustments to funding for OJP and COPS programs).

Department of Justice FY 2017 Tribal Budget Request

- The Administration and the Department of Justice rolled out the FY 2017 President's Budget request on February 9, 2016.
- In FY 2017, we are requesting the 7% tribal justice assistance set aside to replace funding for the Indian Assistance and Tribal Youth Program line items. Based on the funding levels included in the FY 2017 budget request, we anticipate that the set aside would generate approximately $111 million for tribal programs.
- Within the Crime Victims Fund, we will request $25 million for Vision 21 tribal victim assistance programs.
- The FY 2017 President's Budget also proposes restoring funding for JABG and a substantial increase for OJJDP's Part B Formula Grants programs, which would generate some additional set aside funding for tribal programs.

Department of Health and Human Services Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

- Tribal Behavioral Health Grant Program
 - $30 M in FY 2016: 70 new awards—average $200,00 p/y
 - Prevent and reduce suicide and substance use, and promote mental health among Native young people
- Increased recognition of tribal eligibility for discretionary grant programs
 - Prevention/treatment of mental & substance use disorders
- Areas for greater tribal engagement
 - Homelessness, Drug-Free Communities, Drug Courts, National Child Traumatic Stress, System of Care, Strategic Prevention Framework—Partnerships for Success
