December 2018

Welcome participants:

On behalf of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the Agua Caliente Indian Reservation for the 16th National Indian Nations Conference: Justice for Victims of Crime.

With the theme "Braiding Strength, Hope, and Healing for the Path Forward," all attendees will have the opportunity to learn and grow from the information shared over these few days for the benefit of all Tribal Nations. It is only through the exchange of ideas and true collaboration that we can build a stronger case for the needs of justice for victims of crime among Native Americans.

We sincerely hope you enjoy your visit to the Reservation, which is situated in a checkerboard-style fashion across Palm Springs, Cathedral City and Rancho Mirage. We hope you will also have time to visit the Spa Resort Casino in downtown Palm Springs or the Indian Canyons recreational area, also located in Palm Springs, which has been our home since time immemorial.

Please accept our best wishes for a successful conference and a prosperous future.

Sincerely,

Jeff L. Grubbe
